

Risk Assessment and Method Statement for Deckchairs

Hazard	Who at risk	What is the risk	Control measure	Risk rating	Controls adequate
Dangerous equipment	Participants Spectators	Not correctly set-up Not in perfect order	The equipment is inspected before being packed away from the last event and as they arrive on site for any signs of wear which can be rectified in good time.	low	yes
Dangerous site	Participants Operators Spectators	Falls and slips Equipment moving. Moving objects	Equipment must be kept in a designated area. Equipment must be set-up following the manufacturer's instructions. Set-up on a sound and level area with no objects that could cause tripping..	low	yes
Users safety	Participants	Too many users Falls and slips	The number of users specified by the manufacturer is not to be exceeded. The equipment must be used in accordance with the manufacturer's guidelines. A responsible individual will be in control of the equipment at all times who is briefed in safe running of the equipment. If outdoor, Wind speed will remain monitored to ensure that it is not excessive for safety.	low	yes
Unsupervised children	Participants	Contact with children	All children to be with a supervising adult.	low	yes

Prepared by Living the Cream, 18 Woodlands Drive, Colsterworth, Lincolnshire NG33 5NH

